

Happy Friday to the young and young at heart.

Welcome to Kids Online Church #2.

I wonder which of the songs in this edition helps you to feel happy or joyful? One song made me think of Juliette, which one do you think reminded me of her? I wonder when and where, this week, did you see God's love?

There is lots of trouble in the world and we can help by being Christ's peacemakers. We can be like Jeremy Ross in the story Enemy Pie.

In this edition of Kids Online Church, you'll find songs for all ages, a sample game for older youth "Breakout" and ideas for adults who are nurturing the spirituality with children. Please let me know what you like in this edition so that the next edition can be full of what you love.
